

Sample Blues Lyrics

My day today is just takin' way too long.
My day today is just takin' way too long.
I'm getting kinda ready to take myself straight on home.
—T. W.

Mr. Grisham calls me the Blues Man.
Mr. Grisham calls me the Blues Man.
I'm thinking, why doesn't he just call me Dan?
—W.

I came to school to get some chicken.
I came to school to get some chicken.
I ate so much that my heart stopped tickin'.
—D. J.

I went to school today; I was very tired.
I went to school today; I was very tired
If that was [my] job, I would be fired.
—S. W.

I got up last night and couldn't believe my sight.
I got up last night and couldn't believe my sight.
I looked out the door [and saw] somebody stole my bike.
—B. S.

I woke up this morning with a bad, bad, cold.
I woke up this morning with a bad, bad, cold.
It's all because my sneeze is on hold.
—K.

Sample Blues Lyrics

My day today is just takin' way too long.
My day today is just takin' way too long.
I'm getting kinda ready to take myself straight on home.
—T. W.

Mr. Grisham calls me the Blues Man.
Mr. Grisham calls me the Blues Man.
I'm thinking, why doesn't he just call me Dan?
—W.

I came to school to get some chicken.
I came to school to get some chicken.
I ate so much that my heart stopped tickin'.
—D. J.

I went to school today; I was very tired.
I went to school today; I was very tired
If that was [my] job, I would be fired.
—S. W.

I got up last night and couldn't believe my sight.
I got up last night and couldn't believe my sight.
I looked out the door [and saw] somebody stole my bike.
—B. S.

I woke up this morning with a bad, bad, cold.
I woke up this morning with a bad, bad, cold.
It's all because my sneeze is on hold.
—K.